Figure S1. Low dose of niclosamide treatment causes 81T cell cycle arrest. 48T, 81T and BE3 cells were treated with 2.5 μM niclosamide for 48 or 72 h. Cells were stained with PI for DNA content and analyzed by flow cytometry. The relative proportion of the sub-G1 cells was indicated. PI, propidium iodide.