Thank you for taking our survey today.

Helpful tips:

- Questions marked with a red asterisk (*) are required questions that you must answer to move forward.
- You may skip any questions that you do not feel comfortable answering.
- This is a forward-only survey. When you finish a page, proceed to the next page by clicking the "Next" button. You may not go backwards to pages you already complete. Please do not use the back button on your browser as this may cause problems with your survey.
- We are going to be asking questions about your background and life experience, healthcare, HIV prevention, your sexual partners and relationships, alcohol and substance use, and more.
Your confidentiality is important to us! All information you provide today in this survey will be held confidentially. Your answers will be used only for research purposes and we do not collect information to identify you and link you to your answers. Researchers will only see data that is anonymous.

Validation: Min character count = 1
Throughout this next group of questions, we will ask you about your recent male primary partner using a nickname you have provided to make the questions specific to your partner. Examples of a nickname that you might choose are: a partner’s first name, a nickname you call the partner by, the place where you both met, or an online screen name.

Please choose a nickname that will best help you know to whom we are referring. The nickname is to make the survey easier to take and you should not reveal your partner’s full identity. We do not wish to know who your partner actually is.

Enter the nickname for your recent male primary partner below. *
