Abstract. The party branch of college students plays an important role in the development and training of excellent young party members. This paper attempts to construct the individual evaluation index of college student party members, quantifying the standards and requirements of party members. Therefore, it is beneficial to construct the long-term mechanism of party member cultivation education for college students.

The Significance of Party Branch Construction for College Students

It Will Help Consolidate the Party's Primary Party Organizations and Play the Role of a Battle Fortress

College student party branch is a basic unit under the jurisdiction of college party committee, it has the decisive role to the development and the training outstanding young party member. Colleges take the student party branch as the position, it can flexibly carry out various educational activities. The college publicizes the party's policies, guidelines, lines, marxist ideology and national development policies to student party members through the student party branch, to ensure that young party members can play a role as a fortress in front of the big yes and no, and to ensure that the party's leading position in universities can be stable.

Strengthening the Party Branch Construction of College Students Provides a Strong Guarantee for the Growth of College Students

Strengthening the construction of the party branch of college students provides certain guidance for the growth of college students. In 2014, general secretary Xi Jinping stressed in his speech at a symposium between teachers and students at Peking University, the value orientation of youth determines the value orientation of the whole society in the future, it is very important to cultivate the values of youth. Strengthening the construction of student party branch in colleges and universities, improving the ideological and theoretical quality of student party members, so that their ideals and beliefs more firm and "three views" is more correct.

Through student party branch construction, it can also create a strong atmosphere that attaches importance to learning, advocates learning and insists on learning. So as to drive more college students to study more consciously and diligently and Increase the awareness and urgency of learning, thus to the university student understanding question, the analysis question, the solution question ability has the very big promotion function.

Strengthening the Construction of College Student Party Branch Is Helpful to Improve the Quality of Party Members

According to the party constitution, primary party organizations should be established if there are more than three full party members. The college closely follows the policy requirements of the party, establishing the student party branch, the student party member strength effective agglomeration. The management of university party members has been further strengthened, and the ideological and political consciousness of university party members has been continuously improved. The behavior of student party members is also effectively supervised and managed by the student party branch, it always reminds their party membership, under organizational supervision and self-demand, student party member's own quality improves gradually. At the same time, college student party branch organizes student party member to study the important content such as the party's basic knowledge seriously actively, marxism, it plays an important role in improving the comprehensive quality of student party members.

The Basic Principles of Construction the Evaluation System of University Student Party Members

Evaluation Index Construction Should be Scientific

The construction of the evaluation index of student party members in colleges should not only reflect the integrity, but also be simple to operate, helping the basic party organization to establish a long-term working mechanism, also want to hold the important job of phasal sex at the same time. It should give full play to the characteristics of the work of grassroots party organizations, so as to guarantee the effective operation of the evaluation index.

Evaluation Index Construction Should be Oriented

College student party member evaluation index should have certain target, it should effectively implement the party's purpose, scientific outlook on development, and so on, strengthening the party's advanced nature construction. Construction of evaluation index, to a certain extent, it can verify the quality of student party members, it is helpful for arousing and arousing the enthusiasm of college students and party members in their work, promoting the effective implementation of the party branch of college students.

Evaluation Index Construction Should be Operable

The construction of evaluation index should combine the party construction work in colleges with the actual situation of student party members, combining qualitative and quantitative indicators, and it has to be matched by actual work. In practice, quantitative indicators are the main ones, qualitative indicators are auxiliary. The evaluation of college student party members should be made public, party branches, party members, departments and ordinary students should be involved, it can promote the evaluation of student party members.

The Construction of Evaluation Index Should be Normative

In the process of constructing evaluation index, the result and process of evaluation should be unified. The establishment of evaluation indexes should be conducive to the realization of the evaluation results of student party members. The process that evaluates to student party member also should take seriously, and the result and the process must be both. In the evaluation process, two layers of management and evaluation should be avoided. We should not only attach importance to the results of evaluation, the whole process of producing results should be paid more attention.

Establishment of Evaluation Indexes for College Student Party Members

College student party member evaluation is divided into three parts: party branch evaluation, self-evaluation and mass evaluation, and the comprehensive evaluation is carried out according to the quantitative index, evaluation shall be made periodically according to the actual situation, promoting the university student party branch construction and the party member own quality enhancement.

According to the evaluation criteria, we evaluate student party members in colleges and by party branches, by ourselves and by the masses. After evaluation, party members shall be determined to be excellent, good, medium and flunk, and the evaluation results shall be publicized.

Table 2. Grade of evaluation results

|            | excellent | good | medium | flunk |
|------------|-----------|------|--------|-------|
| 90~100     |           | 80~90| 60~80  | 0~60  |

The excellent student party member in evaluation results can be listed as outstanding communist party branch candidates, and as the learning object of student party members. The good student party member in evaluation result should encourage him to learn from excellent party members. The medium student party member in evaluation result should give supervise by student party branch. The flunk student party member in evaluation result needs student party branch gives take seriously, and should talk to them, re-education and so on.
Conclusion
The construction of student party branch has great significance, under the policy guidance of the CPC central committee, colleges should constantly strengthen and improve the construction of student party branches. But this is not happened overnight, colleges need to constantly explore the development of student party branch construction. Problems in the development process should pay attention and keep improving.
