Table 1. Semistructured Interview Guide: Questions related to appearance issues

| Interview Section                          | Exemplar Interview questions                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Parental perception of appearance         | ▪ Do you believe other people notice that your son/daughter was born with (diagnosis)?
▪ If yes, how do you feel about other people noticing?
▪ How do you feel about your child’s appearance?                                                                                                                              |
| Parental perception of child experience   | ▪ How do you think your child feels about other people noticing?
▪ How do you believe your child feels about his/her appearance?
▪ Has your child experienced others commenting or asking about (condition)? If yes, how have you experienced this? How did you cope with this?
▪ Has your son/daughter experienced appearance-related teasing? If yes, how have you experienced this? How did you cope with this?                                                                 |
| Social experiences                        | ▪ (If reactions from others have been mentioned): How do you cope with other people’s reactions to the difference?                                                                                     |
| Talking about appearance                  | ▪ Do you talk to your child about appearance-related issues? If yes, how do you feel about talking about appearance with your child?                                                                                   |
| Appearance-altering surgery               | ▪ Has your child been through operations that have changed his/her appearance? If yes, in which ways? How did you feel about this?
▪ How do you believe your child experiences his/her appearance after the operation(s)?
▪ How did you experience the child’s appearance after operations?                                                                                                                  |