In this original article, the XRD curve corresponding to CC in Figure S8, Supporting Information, is not from the correct sample. The correct Figure S8 is presented below. The authors confirm that the error does not influence the conclusions of the communication and apologize for the inconvenience.
