| SL | Sign/ Symptoms                                                                 | Ask/ Examine                                                                 | Results |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| 0  | Was the child born before 35 weeks?                                           | For 0-2 months child, Ask the mother whether the child was born before 35 weeks? | Yes     |
| 1  | Does the eye ball seem whitish or brown?                                      | Examine with torch whether any eye ball is whitish or brown                  | No      |
| 2  | Watering from eye or accumulation of discharge.                               | Examine for watery discharge or accumulation of discharge at corner of both eyes | No      |
| 3  | Is redness of eye present?                                                     | Examine for presence of redness of eye                                        | Yes     |
| 4  | Examine with torch for presence of any sign of eye injury.                    |                                                                              | No      |
|   | Question                                                                 | Answer                                                                 |  |
|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|
| 6 | Is squint present?                                                      | Examine for presence of squint                                          |   |
| 7 | Is there any structural deformity?                                      | Examine for presence of any structural deformity.                       |   |
| 8 | Is there any problem in normal vision?                                 | Ask the mother for any problem in normal vision.                        |   |
| 9 | Is visual inattention present?                                         | Ask the mother whether the child looks at her face and smiles.          |   |