EMFPU: London Fire PMCT DVI Process Map, June 2017

1. New Case
   - EMFPU
   - London PMCT scan carried out
   - Scan data collected
   - Scan data burnt to DVD

2. Decision
   - Data set by_filepath?
     - NO:
       - Physical DVD transported to EMFPU
       - DVD received in EMFPU
       - DVD data loaded into electronic folder
       - Data filed in Pathologist electronic case folder “Unreceived”
       - Physical DVD stored in physical folder
     - YES:
       - Data from Video received in EMFPU
       - Data file in Pathologist electronic case folder “Unreceived”
       - Physical DVD transported to EMFPU
       - DVD received in EMFPU
       - DVD data loaded into electronic folder
       - Data filed in Pathologist electronic case folder

3. Assign Pathologist
   - Anthropologist
     - Anthropologist creates first image set
     - Images filed electronically in "Images" subfolder
   - Pathologist
     - Pathologist creates images of interest
     - Images filed electronically in "Images" subfolder

4. Images
   - Images received in admit?
     - YES:
       - Draft DVI-form written by Pathologist
       - Draft DVI-form delivered to admin team
       - Draft form scanned and filed in admin electronic folder
     - NO:
       - Images not received in admit

5. DVI Form
   - DVI form returned to admin team
   - DVI form typed by admin team
   - DVI form signed by admin team
   - Electronic signature added to form (DVI-form)
   - Signed DVI-form and images sent to London (London sign on form)
   - Pathologist database updated to show DVI-form sent
   - Pathologist electronic folder moved to "wide foul report"
