Dear co-authors,

as you probably know our manuscript in Cell Death Discovery is accepted for publication. Since Dr Luying Peng helped me to interpret the data I put him as a co-author. The journal asked me now that you also agree that Dr, Peng will be also a co-author in our manuscript. To avoid any delay, please reply to my email as soon as possible confirming that you agree with the co-authorship of Dr Peng.

Best regards

Agapios

Dear Prof. Sachinidis,

Thanks for your Email and for including me in this manuscript.

Since I am still a guest Scientist at the MPI Münster, I think you can put this as my affiliation:

Max Planck Institute for Molecular Biomedicine, Muenster, Germany

I agree on having Dr. Luying Peng as co-author.

Best regards,

Sara
