INTRODUCTION

Education is an effort made by humans in order to increase their capacity and capability because education can change a person's social status and position. In the process of changing the social strata, it really requires hard work and honesty. Honesty is the main key to blessing something we get that is related to character and personality. In achieving success, it should be in a way that is in accordance with the norms and teachings of existing religion. Therefore the character greatly influences the way a person reaches his desires. Character comes from the English vocabulary Character, which means personality, behavior that shows characteristic that distinguishes one person from another person. The idiom in Acehnese society is basically the same as the expression in Indonesian or other languages, which in Aceh is better known as hadihmaja, which contains a figurative meaning related to the behavior of a person or community member in daily life\textsuperscript{1}. The Acehnese idiom has benefits for others, both personally and collectively because in its background the traditional idioms contain the advice and teachings of educational norms in society that must continue to be preserved. Along with the development of the era that we see in the current situation there have been many shifts in cultural values and the misuse of meaning contained in traditional idioms mistreated by the present generation.

The idiom used by the Acehnese in everyday life is a parable to state the abstract things become concrete and vice versa\textsuperscript{2}. Idioms are almost similar as adages or proverbs. However, idioms tend to be found in certain areas and will be different from other regions even though they are in one province\textsuperscript{3}. The idioms are used as an image to refine the meaning and it may include the metaphor. Acehnese idioms have many meanings including advice, social criticism, praise, guidance, harmony, dependence, greed, and tranquility, while their functions include appreciation, educating, reminding, entertaining, and reinforcing faith\textsuperscript{4}. From those reasons above, the use of idioms is very appropriate in integrating character education. This is because one of the functions of the idiom is to thicken the faith, so that the message contained in the idiom becomes a guide in the implementation of life\textsuperscript{5}.

Referring to the theory, idioms are typical expressions used by people with the aim of strengthening their understanding of what they delivered\textsuperscript{6}. In its application, it is found idioms deviations from general language rules. They are usually in the form of phrases, while their meanings cannot be explained logically or grammatically by relying on the meanings of the words structure. To interpret the idiom, it cannot be necessarily done based on semantics but must be reviewed based on pragmatics\textsuperscript{7}. This is because the meaning of idioms can be contrary to the meaning in general.

The focus of this research is the values contained in the idiom in the community of Kuala Bateein Southwest Aceh as character education for students. This research is important to carry out because the use of idioms in society has been greatly reduced, but the values contained in idioms are very important in growing character for a child. Therefore, this study examines the values contained in the idioms so that they become input for relevant parties to revitalize and apply the use of idioms in learning.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

Religious

In KBBI, religion means belief in the existence of supernatural powers over humans. This religious value is very thick in Islam and becomes signs in everyday life. The term religiosity is very closely related to religion. Religiosity is also understood by many people as a religious value in which it binds the relationship between humans and God; human to human; and humans and the universe. The results of this study found the value of religiosity in the Acehnese language idiom in the community of Kuala Bateein Southwest Aceh as follows.

D1 : Lupot mawot silab rugoe, kon lam jaroe geutanyo hamba. (Release from death, forget, lose everything is in God's hands).
D2 : Meunyö teupat niet ngon kasat, laöti ngon darat Tuhan peulara. (If the intention is true, the intention at sea and on land God will maintain).
D3 : Hina bak dÔnya areuta teuh tan, hina bak Tuhan èleumêe hana.. (Disgraceful in the world for not having treasure, Disgraceful in the sight of God for having no religious knowledge).

The meaning contained in this expression is about human relationships with God, in which humans can plan anything but God determines whether or not these desires can be achieved. Humans cannot escape death and will never know when it will come, as well as profit and loss, everything has been arranged by God. The religious lessons in this phrase focus to human who must believe in their God and surrender to His decree.

Be honest

Honesty has a relationship between facts and existing information. In the KBBI, honesty means following the applicable provisions. The results of this study found idioms that have the value of honesty that can be used for character education. The forms of idioms that have the value of honesty used by the community of Kuala Bateein Southwest Aceh are as follows.

D4 : Ranueb na supah jimita (Sirih ada sepah dicari). (Busy to find the little thing you forget the main thing)

D5 : Tupat dum pucök paku, sulu dum pucök buga (Straight (honest) like a fern shoot, straight like a buga shoot).

D6 : Yang na beka peutan, Nyan tan bek ta peuna (do not deny what is there, do not make up things that aren’t there)

D7 : Teupat keupangkai, akai keulaba (if you invest in honesty, you will gain reason as the profit).

"Like to do jobs that are contrary to existing values". Ranueb (betel) is a good reflection of halal, while seupahjimita (sepah sought) is a picture of work that is contrary to religious norms (haram). So, implicitly the meaning of this idiom is people not to do prohibited work.

Religiosity and honesty are very dominant in the Aceh language idiom in the community of Kuala Bateein Southwest Aceh. Religiosity is the main thing and is used as a principle for the people of Aceh who are Muslim. The use of idioms that have religious values is usually used by lecturers when delivering sermons to become a benchmark for listeners. This is the same as the dominant honesty value found in idioms. Religiosity and honesty are two things that are close to each other. Honesty is part of religiosity, because someone who is honest is certain to have high faith. On the other hand, if you are not honest, the value of faith is very low.

In addition to religiosity and honesty, the results of this study also found several other values contained in Acehnese idioms. The values contained in the Acehnese idioms are very relevant to develop character education that has high emotional value. This is because the Acehnese language is the mother tongue for most Acehnese people.

Overall, the values contained in the Acehnese dialect in the Southwest Kuala Bateein community include tolerance, discipline, hard work, creativity, independence, democracy, curiosity, national spirit, love for the homeland, respect for friendly/communicative achievements, love of peace, love to read, care for the environment, responsibility.
