OBITUARY.

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death, at an early age, of Dr. R. W. Irvine, of Pitlochrie, whose decease has severed the last link by which his family was bound to the district. After a distinguished career at the University of Edinburgh, in Arts as well as Medicine, he settled at Pitlochrie as assistant to his uncle, and soon rendered himself the best-loved man in the district. For years after undertaking duty in Perthshire he was a well-known figure in athletics, as he played in many international matches. His loss is sincerely mourned by all who knew him.
