Tourism industry plays a vital role in any country’s economic development. Tourism in India has emerged as one of the important tool of employment generation, income and Foreign Exchange earnings and infrastructure development both in rural and urban areas. It helps in the poverty eradication and up gradation of living standard of the people around the tourist sports particularly in remote backward areas. Tourism in India has a strong relevance to economic development, cultural growth and national integration. India is a vast country of great beauty and diversity and her tourist potential is equally vast. With her rich cultural heritage as superbly manifest in many of the architectural wonders (palaces, temples, mosques, forts, etc), caves and prehistoric wall paintings, her widely varied topography ranging from the monotonous plains to the loftiest mountains of the world, her large climatic variations ranging from some of the wettest and the driest as well as from the hottest and the coldest parts of the world, beautiful long beaches on the sea coast, vast stretches of sands, gregarious tropical forests and above all, the great variety of the life-style, India offers an unending choice for the tourist.

According to the Indian estimates, Indian tourism industry has outshined the global tourism industry in terms of growth, revenue and volume of tourist arrivals. India’s travel and tourism sector ranks 7th in the world in terms of its total contribution to the country’s GDP, according to a new report of the World Travel and Tourism Council (WTTC). The importance of tourism as an instrument for economic growth and employment generation, particularly in remote and backward areas, has been well recognized world over. It is the largest service industry globally in terms of gross revenue as well as foreign exchange earnings.

India has been recognized as a destination for spiritual tourism for domestic and international tourists. India was ranked 34th in the Travel & Tourism Competitiveness Report 2019 published by the World Economic Forum. Total contribution by travel and tourism sector to India’s GDP is expected to increase from Rs 15,24,000 crore (US$ 234.03 billion) in 2017 to Rs 32,05,000 crore (US$ 492.21 billion) in 2028. Total earning from the sector in India stood at US$ 28.6 billion in 2018 and is targeted to reach US$ 50 billion by 2022. India improved its ranking by 6 places over the 2017 report which was the greatest improvement among the top 25% of countries ranked. As of 2019, 4.2 crore jobs were created in the tourism sector in India which was 8.1 per cent of total employment in the country.

According to WTTC, India ranked 3rd among 185 countries in terms of travel & tourism’s total contribution to GDP in 2018. International Tourists arrival is expected to reach 30.5 billion by 2028. Contribution of Tourism Industry in India’s GDP
Economic Survey says that “Tourism sector is a major engine of economic growth that contributes significantly in terms of GDP, foreign exchange earnings and employment. In India, the Tourism sector had been performing well with Foreign Tourist Arrivals (FTAs) growing at 14 per cent to 10.4 million and Foreign Exchange Earnings (FEEs) at 20.6 per cent to US$28.7 billion in 2017-18. However, the sector witnessed a slowdown in 2018-19. The Foreign Tourist Arrivals (FTA) in 2018-19 stood at 10.6 million compared to 10.4 million in 2017-18. The growth rate of FTAs declined from 14.2 per cent in 2017-18 to 2.1 per cent in 2018-19. Foreign Exchange Earnings (FEEs) from tourism stood at US$27.7 billion in 2018-19 as compared to US 28.7 billion in 2017-18. The FEEs declined from 20.6 per cent in 2017-18 to -3.3 per cent in 2018-19. Outbound tourism increased in recent years, with the number of departures of Indian nationals from India that stood at 23.94 million in 2017 as against 21.87 million in 2016 with a growth rate of 9.5 per cent in 2017. This was more than double the foreign tourist arrivals in India.”

India’s travel and tourism sector is expected to be the second largest employer in the world, employing 40,037,000 by 2019. With the expectation of further liberalization policies FDI in the tourism sector is likely to increase from the current US$450 million to US$1 billion by 2010 and increase the number of foreign tourist arrivals to 10 million in 2011. The recent inflow of FDI to India has helped to create 1980 new hotels with 109,392 rooms. In 2015, tourism is expected to generate 36.4 per cent of world gross domestic product; 14.05 per cent of global capital investments; 13.23 per cent of worldwide employment; and 32.14 per cent of worldwide exports of goods and services. Tourism industry in India is growing and it has vast potential for generating employment and earning large amount of foreign exchange besides giving a fillip to the country’s overall economic and social development.

The provision of tourist services generates employment opportunities. It increases the employment level by creating new employment in the tourism sector and by stimulating the creation of others, such as construction, transport etc. It indirectly increases productivity by other sectors, particularly of the agriculture sector as it draws manpower resulting from hidden employment or seasonal under employment. This sectors exhibits backward and forward linkages with other sectors in the economy. Employment opportunities
Tourism is widely considered to be a high user of labour and its impact on job creation can be considered in areas with limited potential for other economic activities. Tourism is responsible for creation of employment outside the tourist industry. Tourism in India has vast employment potential, much of which still awaits exploitation. he tourism sector will support 37.315 million jobs, which is about 8.7% of its total employment in India. The tourism industry is a service-based one; it relies heavily on human resources. The travel industry grows exponentially with specialized education. In fact, it depends entirely on the quality individuals have to offer. According to the report of World Travel and Tourism Council, Travel and Tourism generated 26,148,000 jobs directly in 2017 (5% of total employment) and is forecast to grow by 2.8% in 2018 to 26,883,000 (5.1% of total employment). This includes employment by hotels, travel agents, airlines and other passenger transportation services excluding commuter services. By 2028, Travel and Tourism will account for 33,195,000 jobs directly, an increase of 2.1% p.a. over the next ten years.

Table:- Direct and indirect contribution of tourism towards employment in the country.

| Reference Year | 2013 - 14 | 2014 - 15 | 2015 - 16 | 2016 – 17 | 2017 – 18 |
|----------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| Share in Employment (in %) | 11.90 | 12.09 | 12.38 | 12.19 | 12.38 |
| Direct (in %) | 5.19 | 5.27 | 5.40 | 5.32 | 5.40 |
| Indirect (in %) | 6.71 | 6.82 | 6.98 | 6.87 | 6.98 |
| Employment (in million) | 67.20 | 69.60 | 72.30 | 75.90 | 81.10 |

Conclusion:-
Tourism industry in India is growing and it has vast potential for generating employment and earning large amount of foreign exchange besides giving a fillip to the country’s overall economic and social development. But much more remains to be done. Eco-tourism needs to be promoted so that tourism in India helps in preserving and sustaining the diversity of the India's natural and cultural environments. It also helps to generate income for the country and is a continual source of income. It aids and encourages infrastructure development by making ways for dams, roads, connectivity, airport improvements and any other activities that helps tourists in visiting a place in a much better way. It is a wonderful method for cultural exchange. Tourism also plays an important role in eradicating the unemployment. It created many jobs specifically in hotel industry, hospitality industry, service sector, entertainment, transportation industry etc. which gives an opportunity for trying new tasks and learn new skills. It also increases the standard of living of people and also helps in the economic progress of the nation by generating foreign currency.
