Figure S2: Change in inter-pulse-interval (IPI) of individual bats in the large flight room. The IPI was measured in the last 150cm of flight until landing (mean±SE). Baselines were measured before the cluttered chamber experiment (stage 1; Blue), and immediately after spending two months in the cluttered flight chamber (stage 3; Red).