Manuscript Number:

Manuscript Title: Evidence of a disability paradox in patient-reported outcomes in haemophilia

ALL authors must sign both the Declaration of Interests form as well as the Copyright Transfer Agreement form. These forms are to be returned to the Production Office before the manuscript can be accepted for publication.

A competing interest exists when professional judgment concerning a primary interest (such as patients' welfare or the validity of research) may be influenced by a secondary interest (such as financial gain or personal rivalry).

Examples of Competing Interests:
(a) Source of Funding. This includes:
- Reimbursement for attending a symposium
- A fee for speaking
- A fee for organising education
- Research support from organisations that might gain or lose financially through publication of the paper
- Funds for a member of staff
- Fees for consulting
(b) Paid consultant work to Sponsor
(c) Study Investigator funded by Sponsor
(d) Recent, present or anticipated employment of you or a family member by any organization that may gain or lose financially through publication of the paper
(e) Board Membership with Sponsor
(f) Stocks or shares in companies that may gain or lose financially through publication; consultant fees or fees from speakers bureaus other forms of remuneration from organisations that may gain or lose financially; patents or patent applications whose value may be affected by publication
(g) Patent Rights
(h) Any Financial Relationship to Competitors of Mentioned Product
(i) Other

Any such interest that authors may have should be declared. The aim of the statement is not to eradicate competing interests, as they are almost inevitable. Papers will not be rejected because there is a competing interest, but a declaration on whether or not there are competing interests will be added to the paper.
