While measurement in the lateral dimension of gait differs in literature, step width ($S_2W$) is one of the most prevalent terms, whereas some sources use Heel-to-Heel Base of Support (Base Width) which is the term used in the GAITRite system.

Robust(+): Exemplary stride of a high performing Robust person
Robust: Average stride of the Robust group
Frail: Average stride of the Frail group
Frail(-): Exemplary stride of a low performing Frail person