Supplementary Figure S3. A maximum likelihood phylogenetic tree constructed using sequences extracted from partial SL hits to the P. ovalis genome (visualization by iTOL). The sequences used to construct the tree are shown on the left of the tip labels; residues are colored using the ClustalX color scheme with a consensus sequence shown at the bottom of the alignment.