BOOKS ALSO RECEIVED

Readers may wish to note that this year’s list of ‘Books Also Received’ has returned to the pre-pandemic practice of listing books which the Book List has been sent but which fall outside its remit of scholarship on the Old Testament and cognate studies. Accordingly, unlike last year’s listing of books that had been received in between coronavirus lockdowns but for which it had not proved feasible for reviews to be prepared for the 2021 edition, and thus it was hoped that reviews of those works would appear in the 2022 edition (as has indeed transpired), this year’s listing is not to be seen as soliciting offers of review for the works listed here.
