Figure S1. Time frequency data from a representative sensor (MEG2113) for the theta response, per sex and age group (divided by a median split per sex). Note that the onset and offset of the primary response falls largely within the imaged time-frequency window, regardless of group.