INTRODUCTION
Bangladesh is a developing country. It is located in the Indian Sub-Continent. The present population of Bangladesh is approximately 16 crore and unemployment rate is 14.2 percent. The various education institutions of Bangladesh are producing thousand-thousand graduates in every year. But these graduates do not get their jobs from the existing job facilities in Bangladesh. Thus, the government and private authorities can take the initiatives to flourish the tourism industry in this country. Many unemployed people may start their career in this industry when it will be developed. As a result, the unemployment rate of this country will be decreasing gradually.

In the modern business world, tourism has been considering as the world’s largest and rapid growing industry. It is the most emerging industry in Bangladesh. It contributes tremendously to the economic development of Bangladesh.

Bangladesh is a country with full natural beauty. The reasons it behind some parts of Bangladesh are covered by Hills and some other parts by the rivers. It has six sea beaches of which one is the longest sea beach of the world. The largest Mangrove Forest Sundarban is located at the south part of Bangladesh and it enhances the opportunity of bringing more tourists in Bangladesh. Besides, there are many archaeological sites which can swiftly attract local and foreign tourists. Tourists are ready to pay more for visiting these places. But there are some problems of developing and making this industry more lucrative to the tourists. Tourism sector would be one of the potential sectors to earn huge foreign currency and contribute the economy of Bangladesh if proper policies and strategies can be formulated and implemented by the government in this country. For attracting more local and foreign tourists, natural beauty should be protected and facilities should be increased in Bangladesh immediately.

Development of Tourism Sector in Bangladesh

The most dynamic and growing and also the most lucrative sector throughout the world is tourism industry. In order to increase the share in the world tourism market, each and every country is trying with the overall changing of the country. If a country wants enhance the tourism industry, then the authority of the country needs to be taken urgent innovative and strategic measures. The following steps are badly needed to develop and provide the tourism industry in Bangladesh at present:

i) To make strengthen Bangladesh Parjatan Corporation: The only national tourist organization in Bangladesh is Bangladesh Parjatan Corporation. They should be given sufficient autonomy and power to take timely decision on issues relating to diversification of business, strategic joint venture with local and foreign partners, and ensure the required organizational development.
ii) To provide effective training to the employees: The staffs of hotels, motels and restaurants need training. In this regard, BPC should provide training to these people so that they can give standard service to the tourists.

iii) To formulate adequate rules & regulations: The government of Bangladesh should be formulated adequate rules & regulations for developing and maintaining the tourism industry in Bangladesh. The government of Bangladesh should also modify the existing tourism rules & regulations and make it up-to-date.

iv) To give sufficient advertisement: The public and private owners of tourism organizations in Bangladesh should give adequate advertisement in the electronic and print media within and outside the country regarding different tourist sports and facilities. They can also make brochures, booklet, leaflets, diary, calendar, pen, etc. for the tourists.

v) To develop the infrastructure: The infrastructure is one of the essential things to develop the tourism industry in Bangladesh. In this case, the government of Bangladesh should develop the roads & highways, water, electricity, gas and accommodation facilities for the tourists. The proper development of infrastructure may enhance the number of both local and foreign tourists in Bangladesh.

vi) To create sub-regional zones: Tourists want to get quick service. Thus, the government and private owners may establish the sub-regional zones so that the tourists can easily get service. It may be helpful to attract a large number of local and foreign tourists in Bangladesh.

Findings and Analysis of the Study

Tourism business is one of the lucrative and timely businesses at present in Bangladesh. It provides job opportunities for the unemployed people in this country. It also provides valuable contribution to the economic development in Bangladesh. But the various factors are affecting the image of tourism in Bangladesh at present. This industry is now suffering from plenty of problems. These are as follows:

- The culture of Bangladesh is not favorable for the foreign tourists. That is why, the foreign tourists do not want to come in Bangladesh for their enjoyment.
- The tourism industry of Bangladesh is now suffering from the problems of trained, skilled and efficient manpower.
- The proper publicity is essential for the development of tourism industry in Bangladesh. But this industry is now suffering from the problem of proper and adequate advertisement.
- The tourism industry of Bangladesh needs adequate budgetary allocation in the national budget. But the government of Bangladesh does not allocate sufficient budget for the development of this industry.
- The sound political environment is badly needed for the development of tourism industry in Bangladesh. But the political environment of Bangladesh is not stable due to personal interest of the political parties.
- The positive circular is essential for the development of tourism industry in Bangladesh. But Bangladesh is highlighted in foreign electronic and print media as a country of cyclone, strike, flood, different types of violence, etc.
- The good law and order situation is essential for the development of tourism in a country. But terrorism and robbing are common incidents in this sector of Bangladesh. As a result, tourists’ specifically foreign tourists may not want to come in Bangladesh.
- The easy and simple formalities are essential for the tourists so that they can easily collect visa from Bangladesh Mission located in different countries in the world. But the visa and travel formalities in Bangladesh Mission are so much complicated. For this reason, foreign tourists do not want to come in Bangladesh for their enjoyment.
• The tourists need standard infrastructure facilities. But the present infrastructure facilities of Bangladesh are not attracting the foreign tourists.

• The strong instrumental supports are needed for the development of tourism in a country. But the Ministry of Civil Aviation and Tourism in general and the BPC in particular are suffering from the problems of instrumental capacity.

• The tangible tourism products need to maintain properly for attracting the tourists for long-long time in Bangladesh. In this case, the authority is not active to preserve, conserve and maintain the tangible tourism products. As a result, the tourists may not feel comfortable to come in Bangladesh.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The tourism industry in Bangladesh is now facing some severe problems. The following suggestions are recommended to overcoming these problems for ensuring the stable development of tourism industry in Bangladesh:

• A favorable culture should create for the foreign tourists so that they are feeling comfortable to come in Bangladesh for their enjoyment.

• The public and private authority should establish the different training and education institutes to produce trained, skilled, and efficient manpower for the tourism industry in Bangladesh so that they can provide quick service with quality to the tourists.

• The proper and adequate advertisement should be given by the respective authority in various national and international electronic and print media so that local and foreign tourists may get proper information about the overall tourism industry in Bangladesh.

• The government of Bangladesh should keep sufficient budgetary allocation in the national budget for the development of tourism industry in Bangladesh.

• A favorable political culture should be developed by the government of Bangladesh in consultation with all stakeholders for the greater interest of the country.

• The government of Bangladesh should take the immediate step to stop the negative news published in different foreign electronic and print media about the tourism industry in Bangladesh.

• The government of Bangladesh must come forward quickly to make sound law and order situation for the tourists so that the tourists may feel encourage to come to visit the various beautifully places in Bangladesh.

• The easy and simple visa & travel formalities should be formulated immediately by the government of Bangladesh and send it to the Bangladesh Mission located in different countries all over the world.

• The government of Bangladesh should quickly take action for developing the infrastructure facilities of the country so that tourists may feel more excitement in their mind for coming in Bangladesh.

• The government of Bangladesh should quickly take the action for making stronger the Ministry of Civil Aviation and Tourism and BPC so that they must be more active to enhance the facilities for the tourists.

• The respective authority of Bangladesh should take immediate action for maintaining tangible tourism products of Bangladesh. As a result, the tourists can see these products for long time and can develop their knowledge.
CONCLUSION

Bangladesh is one of the least developed countries in the world. Tourism has been considered as one of the fundamental pillars of economic development in every least developed country in the world. There are ample tourism resources in Bangladesh. Beside, the people of Bangladesh are very much simple and friendly. They like to care the foreign tourists with more hospitality. So, tourism sector of Bangladesh can earn huge amount of money from the tourists both local and foreign tourists. Thus, the government of Bangladesh should pay necessary attention to develop this sector by preparing and implementing effective strategic plans for the development of tourism sector in this country.
