Figure S3: Fitting Heaps’ law with different system sizes. The four plots show typical examples with different system sizes $t$, with $\alpha = 1$ fixed. The fitting functions are obtained by using the linear regression with the least square method, which well capture the growing tendency of $N(t)$. 